

Company Policy

Ramcro S.p.a., Company operating in the area of production and sale of special cables, with particular specialization in instrumentation cables, fire resistant cables and signaling systems, fiber optic cable, constantly improving its performance, not only related to the conformity of the product but also on the aspects of the Environmental, Health and Safety of workers, has developed and adopted an Integrated Management System complies with the requirements of UNI EN ISO 9001, UNI EN ISO 14001, BS OHSAS 18001, considering that choice as the best organizational tool for effective and responsible growth in the territory in which it operates, to its employees and, more generally, in the respect of the community.

In line with the strategy, Ramcro S.p.a. has identified the following primary objectives that it intends to pursue, each in the context of specific application:

QUALITY

- Supply of products having technical characteristics which meet needs of application requests, the qualitative requirements and as much as possible free from defects;
- increasing the visibility of the Company through its market share and customer loyalty;
- the attainment of customer satisfaction;
- reduced costs of Not Quality.

ENVIRONMENT

- a commitment to continual improvement and prevention of pollution;
- the commitment to comply with applicable legal requirements and other requirements to which the Organization subscribes, relative to its own environmental impacts;
- the continuous updating of the necessary framework for setting and reviewing environmental objectives and targets.

SAFETY

- the prevention of injury and illness;
- continuous improvement of the management of H&S;
- continuous improvement of performance in the field of H&S;
- compliance with all applicable legal requirements, and compliance with the requirements of other organization subscribes.

To define this commitment the Direction has considered the following factors:

- Context
- Customer need
- Organization strategies
- Mandatory requirements
- Needs of the parties involved
- Nature, size and environmental impact of the activities carried out and of the products produced
- Analysis of the evaluation of the risks for the health and safety of the workers

Through the Integrated System, Ramcro S.p.a. is able to guarantee the reduction of impacts, compliance and maintenance over time of compliance with environmental laws and regulations on the safety, requirements that the Company believes are essential for the proper management of all activities.

The Company Policy Ramcro S.p.a. is supported at every organizational level, applied to all the processes of implementation, in particular extrusion, stranding and shielding, products and services provided by the Company, including the activities carried out at your site from external suppliers. It has been made known and shared with all staff and suppliers whose activities may impact on their performances Integrated Management System.

The management intends to periodically review the Company Policy and the Integrated Management System to ensure compliance with these standards of reference, applicable laws and programs and improvement targets defined from time to time.

The application of the Integrated Management System provides that the present policy is documented, implemented and maintained and communicated to all stakeholders.

Nerviano, 23/06/2017

RAMCRO S.p.a.
the Management